Walking options and transportation

The Walk is 26km from Nuriootpa to Lyndoch.

If you don't want to walk the full 26km, you can finish at the 13km mark at St Hallett Winery. Choose this option when you register.

You can either leave your car at St Jakobi Lutheran Campus or Redeemer Lutheran School.

Buses will depart from St Jakobi Lutheran Campus at:

- 6:30am to get you to Redeemer Lutheran School in time for registration, breakfast and the Opening.
- 1:30pm to 5:00pm (every half hour) to return you to your car at Redeemer Lutheran School

Buses will also depart from St Hallett Winery at:

- 12:00pm to 2:00pm (every half hour) to return you to your car at either St Jakobi Lutheran Campus or Redeemer Lutheran School

Wheel My Way!

If you are in joining us for Wheel My Way, you have two options:

1. Leave your car (or be dropped off) at Chateau Dorrien Winery by 6.30am. A specially-equipped bus will pick you up and take you to Redeemer in time for registration, breakfast and the Opening.
2. Leave your car (or be dropped off) at Redeemer in time for registration, breakfast and the Opening (which starts at 7am) When you finish at Chateau Dorrien Winery, we will have a bus available to return you to Redeemer.

Trail information (a map is available on the Walk My Way website)

The trail crosses through a variety of terrain including public roads, footpaths and bike trails. You'll need to look out for Walk My Way signage.

- Laminated signs with directional arrows
- Orange tape or orange ribbons attached to trees to show that you are on the right trail

Some sections are on public roadsides, please take care and obey the Australian Road Rules.

The bike trail is a shared path with cyclists. Use caution (particularly on 'blind corners') and respect other users of the trail.

There will also be marshals at some intersections/corners to assist you across the road and to point you in the right direction.

Please stay on the marked trail to avoid causing environmental damage.

Drink stops and/or public toilets

Are located at:

- Nuriootpa Linear Park (2.5kms) – public toilets only
- Chateau Dorrien Winery (5km) – water only
- Faith Lutheran College (Junior Campus) (9.5kms)
- St Hallett Winery (13kms)
- Trinity Lutheran Church, Rowland Flat (20kms)

At St Hallett Winery, we'll provide a simple (free) sausage sizzle for all Walkers. If you'd like something more, you can purchase a St Hallett platter or glass of wine. Simply call the cellar door on 08 8563 7070 to order, or buy on the day (NB: the vegetarian platter must be ordered in advance).

Platters on offer:

- Cheese Platter, $35.00 - includes a selection of cheese, fruits and crackers
- Vegetarian Platter, $35.00 - includes a selection of vegetarian dips, cheese, fruits and crackers (these must be ordered before the Walk day)
- Barossa Platter, $50.00 - includes a selection of cheese, fruits, crackers, local produce/small goods
- Chocolate and wine flight, $15.00 - includes 3 wines paired with 3 handmade artisan chocolates.

Be aware, prepared and responsible!

- Carry your own drinking bottle. You can top up your water bottle at each drink stop.
- Make sure you bring snacks to eat along the trail to maintain your energy level!
- Wear sturdy shoes, hat and sunscreen.
- Leave no litter. Please take your rubbish with you and dispose of it properly.
- Respect the environment. Please don't take short cuts or form new trails.

Medical or First Aid Emergencies

If you have a mobile phone, please take it with you in case of an emergency.

If you decide to drop out of the walk at any point, please let the volunteers at the drink stations know and contact Kirra Lewis 0425 854 476. This is vital for our risk and emergency procedures.

There will be first aid stations at Chateau Dorrien Winery, Faith Lutheran College (Junior Campus), St Hallett Winery, Trinity Lutheran Church (Rowland Flat) and St Jakobi Lutheran Campus.

In the event of a medical or first aid emergency, please contact:

Safety Supervisor: Jonathan 0400 551 657

Please follow these guidelines if there is injury to a walker:

Minor injury (walker is mobile) – call the Safety Supervisor for assistance. Someone must stay with the injured walker.

Moderate injury (walker is immobile) – call the Safety Supervisor who will decide whether to call the First Aid Officer or Emergency Services. Emergency personnel will transport the walker to the nearest road where the walker will be met an ambulance or collected by a friend/family member. Someone must stay with the injured walker.

Serious Injury – make the walker safe and call the ambulance (000) immediately. Reassure the walker, do not them give food or drink. Someone must stay with the injured walker. Another person is to go to nearest road to direct Emergency Services to the walker. Emergency Services will decide on appropriate method of treatment and evacuation. Call the Safety Supervisor after the ambulance has been contacted.

Event Cancellation

The Walk will be cancelled by 4pm on Friday 1st May April if:

- a high temperature is forecast (35 Celsius or above)
- other extreme weather conditions are forecast (lightning, gale force winds).

If the Walk is cancelled, you'll be informed at the start location, via email, text and on the Walk My Way website and Facebook page.
