Getting children back to school

Through ALWS, you support our Partner in operating 59 temporary schools in 8 Rohingya IDP camps in Sittwe and Pauktaw.

These schools support 13,773 Rohingya children to receive an education.

Many of these schools were severely damaged by Cyclone Mocha, as you can see from the photo above.

A total of 48 Temporary Learning Spaces, serving 11,018 children, need to be rebuilt.

Repair and reconstruction is undertaken in close co-operation with Parent Teachers Associations, Camp Management Committees and local Township Education Offices.

| Total       | 5,812 | 5,206 | 11,018 |

This ensures quality construction, agreed standards and approved design.

Average cost to reconstruct a Temporary Learning Space inside an IDP Camp is $4,909, which you are welcome to support. **Donate now**

Learning materials

Text-books, exercise books, pens and paper, and learning materials were either damaged or washed away during the cyclone.

Children in both the IDP Camps and local villages need support to start school again.
